FOREWARD

The following records of five cemeteries in the south part of Lake County represent the start of Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, N.S.D.A.R., to complete over a period of years all of the burial places in the county prior to 1872. Several of the cemeteries are now nonexistent and such records may be hard to find; there may be errors in reading old stones, but the chapter feels that at least a good start has been made in compiling a much needed set of records for the county.

OTHER MARKERS

1. three markers on the same plot without any inscriptions; these were temporary markers
2. marker at the rise of the hill near the tree bears an inscription, but is weathered too badly to be readable
3. a marker bearing the symbols of an open Bible held by hands; it is an old white slab marker which has settled; it has no data on it; it is located south of the James Handley marker
4. thirteen temporary markers scattered throughout the cemetery which carry no data whatsoever.

This record of Orchard Grove Cemetery was compiled by Mrs. Joseph Brown, past regent and Mrs. Waldon A. McBride, regent of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, U.S.D.A.R., Crown Point, Indiana, on October 10, and November 8, 1953.

THE JOHN LUTHER WOODS BURYING GROUND
CENTER TOWNSHIP

This plot lies between State Road #8 or Joliet Street and Walnut Street on the south, on the east are lots facing West Street. The stones had been piled in the southeast corner presumably after the bodies had been removed to Maplewood Cemetery. The Crown Point High School now occupies the larger part of this area.

Joseph Livingston; died July 26, 1860; aged 28 years

Jane; wife of Michael Duffie; died March 20, 1862; aged 67 years

John G.; son of Alvah and Margaret Brownell

This data was compiled by Loretta S. Black and Avis Bryant Brown, past regents of Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, N.S.D.A.R. in June of 1930. The stones since then have disappeared, and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. McBride, present regent, are attempting to locate and identify any of these names in the older section of Maplewood Cemetery in Crown Point.

OLD CROWN POINT CEMETERY
CENTER TOWNSHIP

This cemetery was located in the vicinity of Crown Point, on the crest of a hill on the property owned by the Hildebrandts and later by John Ward and Ruth Pavey Wheeler, about a quarter of a mile south of U.S. Highway #8 and three-fourths of a mile west of the Courthouse. It appears that the bodies were removed to Maplewood or the "new Crown Point Cemetery". These are inscriptions from the broken stones which were left on the property.

Milo Robinson; died January 1, 1837; aged 39 yrs. 9 mo.
13 da.; tradition has it that Robinson was the first burial in this cemetery

Infant; on the above stone of Mehitabel Pelton

Hiram Pelton; died May 26, 1847; aged 36 years

Alvina; wife of ---- (stone was a fragment)

These records were made by Loretta S. Black and Avis Bryant Brown, past regents of Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, H.S.D.A.R., Crown Point, Indiana, in June of 1930. Since then the stones have disappeared from the property. At the present time Mrs. Brown and Mrs. W.A. McBride, present chapter regent are searching to discover if these bodies have placed in the Maplewood section of the Crown Point Cemetery.

Two markers just off the center lane to the west bearing U.S. symbols and having flag standards at the side. No other data on the stones.

In German script a marker which is not readable except to these dates: 6 November, 1914; 23 June, 1890. This marker is the fourth post from the north end of the cemetery.

Three small markers in a direct north to south line at the extreme east side north corner of the cemetery.

Three temporary markers without any data.

These records were compiled by Mrs. Joseph Brown, past regent and Mrs. Waldon A. McBride, regent of the Julia Watkins
Brass Chapter, U.S.D.A.R., Crown Point, Indiana on October
18, 1953, and November 8, 1953.

On November 19, 1953 while driving by South East Grove, we discovered that there had been a recent burial in the north end of the cemetery, but could find a name on the plot.

, William; 1835-1835 (above two are on same stone)

, William T.; silver lettering on under face of glass set over newspaper, placed on a red cement block shape stone; glass shattered and inscription too dim so that above may not be correct

UNIDENTIFIED STONES

J.H.G. initials on top of rounded gray head stone; no other data; probably that of a child.

Two bases not far from Mary R. and R. Goff headstones; might be bases for the above markers.

One red cement block stone; glass shattered and inscription cannot be read.

Two native boulders so placed as to indicate that they may be markers.

Two upright stone slabs 1'x2' with no inscriptions.

Six odd shaped shale stones placed as to indicate graves; no inscriptions.

One 3'x5' concrete framework enclosure; no identification.

A Claude Jones is reported to have been buried here in 1945

In Waco County, 1834-1872, T.H. Hall lists an Ephraim R. Goff killed in battle at Shiloh during the Civil War. He may have been a son of R. Goff or Ephraim.

A N ANCIENT BURIAL PLACE FORGOTTEN

Early in the spring of 1931, this appeared as a reprint from the Walla Walla paper in Spokane. In accordance with the Walla Walla paper, we have found that it is the same of May 27, 1907. It is copied exactly as it appeared on that date.

Mr. E. E. Edwards, a citizen of this place living on North Street, a Civil War veteran and 63 years old, says that he was born at King's Run, at the old Polley millpond, where there is still an indentation in the ground and a tancy bed where the old log cabin stood. His mother was a relative of the Lyric and King, who the "run" was named after, and while living there Mrs. Edwards and two of three children died.

Burial place was picked out on a little ridge of ground south of the cabin and on the east side of the mill pond, where 16 bodies were laid to rest. There never was a stone to mark any of them, although Mr. Edwards knows yet where they are. They have been there now 60 years and over and it is still a lonesome, unsettled place, where nobody but hunters ever travelled and since the mill pond has been drained of its water it is seldom frequented.

The old log cabin on King's Run stood on a side hill, a spot now on the McKinnis land or close to it. We believe this pioneer graveyard has never been mentioned in any of the historical volumes gotten out for Idaho County.

UNIDENTIFIED

1. Two plots that appear to be graves without any markers

2. Three graves with only small upright markers with no data on them

3. Two shale markers appear to mark graves. These are located on either side of the path to the east of the cemetery in the southeast corner near the Ida Jane and Jerome Newell marker. There is no data on these stones.

NOTE

There may be several other stones which can not be located due to the fact that the cemetery section to the south west end is heavily covered with saplings, weeds and such. It also is an area to the southwest which is a high mound of sand which has either been blown over the stones or occurred when the pasture adjacent to the west was cut down and the sand dumped over on these stones. The Peter and Jessie Phillips marker was covered almost two feet by this sand and the Elijah Martin stone was discovered by digging away some three feet of sand.

1. Mrs. (Mary) Waterbolt Holland Phillips was born May 1, 1866 at Middletown, New York, the daughter of John (John) and Hannah Van Hook Waterbolt.

Mattie Westervelt was first married to John Holland born 1874, in Albany County and died at sea in 1913. They were married by John F. Jackson, Minister, Harlem, New York. Records of this marriage are recorded in the Rev. Union League Book, 1880, and copied by Viola Windefelt Phillips. There were three children by this marriage. Mattie Holland married Peter Phillips-see below-April 30, 1900. She died in Ross Township, Lake County, Indiana, February 26, 1950, and is interred in Boston Cemetery.

Peter (Pierre) Phillips was born June 25, 1770, at (Richmond, Tenn. France. He died in Ross Township, Lake County, Indiana, August 22, 1850. He married Elizabeth (Peg) Scott circa 1801 at Pleasant Dale, New York, April 20, 1848, according to the rites of the Reformed Church in No. America performed by John P. Jackson, Minister. During the war the families had resided in Dutchess County, New York, and in Rochester, New Jersey. Afterwards they lived in New York. In the possession of Mrs. William Phillips of Crown Point, Indiana, is the original marriage certificate of this marriage. Bible records copied by Viola Minsickter Phillips, February 2, 1918, at Scott City, Kansas, verify the birth of Peter Phillips.

N.B.

From The Calumet Region Historical Guide, p. 60 we found the name of George Sivers, a veteran of the War of 1812, as being buried in Lake County. Since the area around Herrillville was the home of the Sivers family it might be thought that George Sivers may be buried in this cemetery, with no marker identifying the plot.

From this same publication, p. 51, footnote 1, an Alvin Green of Herrillville was listed as still a resident of Lake County, in 1885. He is listed as a veteran of the Mexican War.

ST. MICHAEL'S CEMETERY
ROCKY MOUNTAIN

Mr. Peter Schweitzer, sexton for the past fifty years, has a formal record of the burials in the cemetery. Therefore only the data from stones which pertain to burials from the beginnings of the cemetery in 1875 through 1930, births prior to 1880, and service records have been copied. It is believed that Nicholas Irob, who died November 2, 1875, was the first burial. But thanks to Mr. Schweitzer who assisted us in our research here.

THESE CEMETERIES
ST. JOHN TOWNSHIP

This cemetery is a family one located on the south side of the old French Point road on a hill in the field just west of the Roman Railroad and east of the town of St. John. A circular path is around the one time Washington cemetery. A arch facing north was evidently the entrance to the burial ground. Just past north of the arch is a large stone with a bronze plate with the inscription: "Public Cemetery Inseted Here 1868". Cemetery itself is approximately 60' x 40'.

H.B.

From The Galveston Region Historical Guide, p. 31, footnote 1, a Joseph DEAR of St. John Township was listed as still a resident of the township in 1893. He is listed as a veteran of the Mexican War. It is possible that he may be buried in this cemetery without a marker to note his burial place.

DEER CREEK CHURCH

WINFIELD TOWNSHIP

T.H. Ball says in his book, Lake County, 1854-1872, of Deer Creek Cemetery "near the school house; this place of burial seems to be well kept. It has been used for many years. Deer Creek and Prairie View were both preaching appointments on the Crown Point circuit. The work at Deer Creek had been in continuance for many years as had that at Prairie View. A church building was erected at Deer Creek in 1860. The congregations at both places have been disbanded and many of the members have transferred to the Methodist Church in Crown Point. A list of the Sunday School class at Deer Creek in 1870, is included in these records.

HIGHWAY POINT CEMETERY BENTON COUNTY, MISSOURI

Highway Point Cemetery is 2.2 miles south and east of the Crown Point Court House southeast corner square at the intersection of Holist and Main streets. The cemetery is about ninety feet by thirty feet, on the east side of the narrow road, and is at the turn to the north of the east-west road at the corner of the present Highway Point, now owned by the Ward family.

There are two pine trees, an under growth of blackberry bushes, some old brush trees. Most of the bodies have been moved into the Holist Church (Methodist) Cemetery a few miles east into Benton County.

CARSON, H.A.; son of H. and H. Carson; died Oct. 29, 1865; aged 11 yrs. 9 mos. 13 da.

CULVER, Aaron; d. Nov. 22, 1873; aged 73 yrs.

MC FARMER, ???; son of David and Mary McFarland; died Oct. 13, 1877; aged 3 yrs. 5 mos. 7 da. (stone broken across given name)

NICHOLS, Joseph B.; son of William and P. Nichols; died Mar. 27, 1848; aged 4 yrs. 6 mos. 13 da. (also a marker with initials J.B.N. on top)

Familia; wife of ?; (stone broken and gone; probably a Nichols since it is near those of the two Nichols children and these stones bear the initials J.B. as mother.)

Vilas B.; son of William and P. Nichols; died Apr. 30, 1857; aged 5 yrs. 3 da. (also a headstone bearing initial J.B.N.)

WARD, Willie; son of A.B. and B. Ward; died Oct. 5, 1869; aged 10 da.

J.B.; (headstone with only these initials; could be Ward since lot is near by)

There is also the following unidentified in cemetery:

1. one stone with initials J.B.
2. three bodies with no stones
3. broken fragments

MAPLEWOOD CEMETERY
CROWN POINT, INDIANA

When we began to consider surveying Maplewood Cemetery in Crown Point, we thought to do only those stones which indicated deaths prior to 1880. Hopeful that the sexton would have some records to make the search somewhat simpler, we found that there was nothing existent on the city cemetery save a few receipts issued for the sale of lots. Thus our task was begun.

MAPLEWOOD is accepted by the public to be the name of the cemetery bounded on the east by Indiana Avenue or the Nine Mile Stretch and on the north by Wells Avenue; A five foot iron fence encloses the entire area. In reality, Maplewood is the west half of this area being divided from the corporation sponsored Crown Cemetery by a row of large maple trees. We have concluded that Blocks B and C were purchased first. Jonthan Wagenblast, who died October 2, 1871, was the second burial in the newly opened cemetery. A child was buried earlier in the day. Apparently the older Crown Point cemeteries were evacuated for we have found death dates as early as 1854. Block A was added later and then a perimeter extending from the southwest corner of A, along the west side and north end was made.

UNMARKED GRAVES

Several years ago, the Legion Post made a survey of the graves of old soldiers buried in the two cemeteries here in Crown Point. This has been the source of several additional pieces of information. It will be noted that in several cases the stones of some have disappeared in the years between the first survey and this which was made in 1964. In checking our findings against this list (Old Soldiers) there are two men who are listed as being buried in unmarked graves. These are:

BILLSICOVER, William; 99th Reg. Ind. Col. Co. A. Enl. Aug. 10, 1865; Disch; June 5, 1865.

BLANK, Peter C.; Co. A. 99th Reg. Ind. Vol. Enl. Aug. 10, 1862; Disch. June 5, 1865

Mrs. Joseph B. Brown, Past Regent of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, D.A.R. and Mrs. Walden A. McBride, present Regent made repeated requests to the community for information as to the vital statistics for those who might be buried in Maplewood but whose graves were not marked. The response was not satisfactory, and it must be supposed that there are a number of graves that are not marked, and hence lost for purposes of records.

MAUSOLEUM

The large mausoleum which covers the south end of Blocks C and D has been abandoned and many of the bodies have been reburied in other locations. However there are still some twenty odd caskets yet in the building and these are difficult to identify since the name plates have been torn off by vandals.

However, using the survey referred to on p.67, we have concluded that two Civil War soldiers are still resting in the building. These are

MYER, John; 1858-1919; Co.-A. 75 rd Reg.; Enl. Aug. 16, 1862; Disch. Dec. 1, 1862; buried "Grave No. Maus #3"

SWARTZ, Dr. H.; 1841-1912; Enl Co. A. 52nd Ill. Inf.; "buried Grave No. 23"

From what few records still exist in regards to the building, it is believed that some members of the H.H. Hecker family are still there.

The present chapter regent has contacted the city attorney and has had his promise that when the building is opened, she and Mrs. Brown may enter and glean what information they can. The recent article which appeared in The Gary Post Tribune accompanies these records.

As late as March, 1958, the process of removal of the estimated "some twenty caskets", and the reinterment of same was not completed. However since that date it is believed that this has been completed.

The place selected for burial was the south side of tSection A at the east end . Description of this rectangular plot is as follows: Begin at the north east corner of this rectangular plot as number 1; then to the south of each grave to four; repeat this four times which set up the plan as follows:

1. Elizabeth Kecker
2. Sherman B. (S.) Kecker
3. Sophie Reichers
4. August Reichers

Mausoleum Mystery To Hub Courts Soon

By RUBY PROCTOR

CROWN POINT—Mystery surrounds a crumbling structure in Crown Point's Maplewood Cemetery—mystery and a complicated legal problem which may be solved by early legal action.

Condemned about 10 years ago, the mausoleum was ordered sealed in 1923 after repeated break-ins and acts of vandalism. The toll of destruction mounted with each entry. Name plates were removed from the crypts, marble slabs torn off the front of vaults and dropped to the floor and broken into useless pieces.

Unbelievable acts of desecration were committed during the last break-in. A cement crypt was torn open, the end of a coffin ripped out and the crumbling remains of a corpse strewn across the floor.

The City Council, meeting in special session, then ordered the building sealed until heirs to the remaining bodies could be located and instructed to remove them.

Even after the mausoleum was sealed—windows boarded up, iron bars bolted across the double doors on either end—an attempt was made to enter. The lock was broken on a cemetery gate and a truck rammed repeatedly against the double doors. They bent inward, but the iron bars held. Had the attempt persisted, the badly deteriorated cement block structure might have collapsed, according to Police Chief George Knight.

More than a dozen arrests were made before the destruction ceased, but no satisfactory explanation was ever received as to the reason for the break-ins.

Most of the arrests were of teen-agers, who claimed they did it for "kicks."

Legal Problem

Whatever the reason for the destruction, it has presented a perplexing legal problem to the City Council. The removal of name plates from the approximately 20 crypts still in use has left it impossible to identify the remaining bodies.

No record of mausoleum burials was kept by the Cemetery Assn., since the building functioned as a separate place of burial and records presumably were kept by the Crown Point Improved Burial Assn. under whose supervision the mausoleum was constructed in 1911.

The mausoleum demolition lawsuit authorized by the City Council has been delayed because of difficulty in finding the parties concerned, City Attorney E. Miles Norton has disclosed. Relatives of the remaining persons buried there cannot be located because of the removal of name plates from the crypts. No record of stockholders in the corporation has been found, nor has the city attorney been able to locate articles of incorporation.

About half of the vaults in the mausoleum, designed to hold 300 bodies, were filled at one time, Elston Adams, cemetery sexton, has estimated. Since the structure was condemned all but 20 coffins have been removed for interment elsewhere.

Deeded in 1912

Deed to the land on which the mausoleum was erected was granted by the city to Frank E. Nelson, National Mausoleum Co., April 24, 1912.

Copy of a sales contract has been found, dated Aug. 8, 1910, in which H. H. Meeker subscribed for three compartments in the Grand Compartment Mausoleum to be built in Crown Point, agreeing to pay $435. Prices of the crypts as listed on the contract were $135 each for those in the upper or lower rows and $150 for those in the two middle rows.

The contract also specified: "The National Mausoleum Co. agrees to endow the above with $5 for each crypt constructed, the same to be held as a permanent fund, interest to be used for the maintenance of the building."

It is believed that such a fund was established and was lost in the failure of the old People's State Bank early in the depression years. Interest on the fund would not have been sufficient to cover major repairs, it is thought.

The construction of two other mausoleums, at Valparaiso and Lowell, and the formation of local burial associations in each community, were promoted by Nelson at about the same time. The one at Valparaiso was demolished by court order in 1919. The one at Lowell is still in use and in better condition than the one at Maplewood, although the trust fund of $500 established there for the smaller structure of 100 crypts, provides a maintenance fund of only $13 annually.

Lowell's May Go

Mrs. Fred Hayden, Lowell, daughter of Frank Nelson, believes that the Lowell mausoleum will also have to be removed eventually because of lack of public interest and insufficient funds for its maintenance.

In her possession is a copy of the constitution and by-laws of the non-profit Lowell Improved Burial Assn. formed by her father. It is believed that the document is identical to the ones used as a basis for the organization of the Crown Point and Lowell associations.

The Lowell mausoleum is only a third the size of the other two, and not so fancy, Mrs. Hayden has indicated. Crypts sold at $100 each originally, but there has been some reselling at higher and lower prices, she believes.

Her father had a horror of being buried in the ground, she recalls, and that led to his interest in and promotion of the "upground burial system." She remembers as a little girl that she sometimes accompanied him on his daily trips to supervise construction of the Valparaiso and Lowell mausoleums.

Nelson was buried in the Lowell mausoleum, but his body was removed a year ago and interred at West Creek Cemetery.

May Find Answer

A solution to the problem may evolve from the "friendly lawsuit" Norton is to file next week against Center Township Trustee Harry Meyer, seeking to have the mausoleum declared a public nuisance.

The law stipulates that if by reason of failure to maintain a burial structure in good repair it should be declared a public nuisance by a court of competent jurisdiction, bodies shall be ordered removed, and the structures razed within 180 days from the final order. If no owners can be found in the county where the structure is located, the court may order it done at the expense of the township.

Consent of the trustee was necessary before a successful court action could be instituted, Norton said. If a judgment is secured, public notice will be served on the heirs of the persons remaining buried in the mausoleum. It is hoped that some will remember the location of family vaults and be able to claim their own dead. Those unclaimed after 90 days will be removed at township expense and buried in another part of the cemetery in unmarked graves. The structure will then be razed, also at township expense.

Tentative plans call for making the land occupied by the mausoleum into a veterans' memorial park. Local veterans' organizations have expressed interest in a permanent project of maintaining a park dedicated to the war dead.

In the meantime maples arch their branches protectingly above the mausoleum's broken tile roof. Inscribed in stone above the battered doors are the words "At Rest."

POINT OF ENTRY—This photo shows where the vandals entered the mausoleum when considerable destruction was caused inside the building.

ILL-FATED MAUSOLEUM—This is the mausoleum in Crown Point which has been damaged by vandals to the extent that a complicated legal problem has arisen concerning removal of the bodies from the crypt. (Post-Tribune photo)

CHESTER CEMETERY

This cemetery is sometimes called the Ainsworth Cemetery by the residents in the community. It is located on the west side of Indiana road 51 between U.S. 50 and 330. It has an area of about two acres with the ground some four or five feet above road level, sloping down to the west. It is enclosed by wire fencing on the north, south, and west. It is fairly well kept, with only a few stones being broken.

CASTLE, Tyndal; died Feb. 21, 1851; aged 45 yrs. 7 mos. 2 da.

This is a single stone of a later period than the death date. It was installed by Molly and Son. Tradition has it that this is on property originally owned by Nathaniel P. Butler.
Present day owners are the Truitt family, though this property was formerly owned by John Hutton. The marker is a few feet south of Deep River, which cuts through the property, on a high bank in an area completely covered with scrub bushes and blackberry briars. Tradition further tells that the river was so completely covered by snow and overflowing that the pall bearers could not cross the river even after a two day wait, and so the casket was buried on this spot. We have placed him in this record since there are other Castles buried in Chester Cemetery.
We are indebted to Mrs. Muscun, wife of the tenant, who directed our search for this stone.

VETERANS' CEMETERY

This small cemetery is located on the west side of Indiana Road 51 about one mile south of downtown Hobart. It is triangular in shape, the apex to the south. The markers are placed in number much to the proportion of the base of the triangle, more to the north. In our search to find or give a name to this we heard and were told several interesting facts. Apparently a definite name was never given to the cemetery, but we learned that older residents of Hobart refer to this area as the cemetery where "Civil War veterans and their families were to be buried." During the period of the thirties with its depression years, several burials were made of paupers. This aroused the older Hobart residents who protested and the practice was stopped.

The cemetery was not well kept for some years, and recently the Hobart Yard and Garden Club have undertaken to keep it in good condition. Alphabetically the stones in the area are as follows:

CARON, Margaret; wife of John Caron (n); died ---- (no data because the stone is broken and embedded; lower part is missing)

, Imoline; (on same lot; stone broken, lower part missing; flower relief on top is ornate and indicates early period)

CARRIERS (CARUTHERS ?), John; died 1884; stone broken and data missing; Civil War marker

, ----; an unmarked government type issue granite slab; bears bronze Civil War marker with dates 1861-1865

, ----; base only; could be same lot and family

COLBURN, Allen; died July 27, 1848; in his 50th year

, Emily E.; son of Allen and Maria; died June 27, 1865; aged 20 yrs. 9 mos. 9 ds.

, Maria; wife of Allen Colburn; died Oct. 29, 1861; in her 51st year

CONYDON, Arthur E.; child of L.H. and A. Conydon; died June 16, 1858; aged 2 yrs. 11 ds.

, Frank D.; child of L.H. and A. Conydon; died Feb. 10, 1853; aged 7 mos. 17 ds.

(both on a single granite marker)

HINREYS, ----; died Aug. 5, ----; aged 41 yrs.

HOSHINS (HASHINS ?), Allen; son of A. and M.H.; died Sept. 9, 1843; aged 9 mos. 6 ds.; (Base stone bears initials H.S.S.)

SEIBERICH, Hannah; wife of S.E. Seiberich; died Mar. 7, 1870; aged 68 yrs. 2 mos. 7 ds.

TILLOTSON, Nancy; wife of Francis Tillotson; died Jan. 26, 1862; aged 21 yrs. 11 mos. 8 ds.

VETERANS' CEMETERY

WATKINS, Mattie; wife of William Watkins; died Jan. 21, 1852; aged 40 yrs.

WHEELER, George W.; son of G. (C ?) and J. Wheeler; died Aug. 11, 1856; aged 1 yr. 2 mos. 15 da.

Ira; died June 30, 1854; aged 65 yrs. 11 mos. 20 da.

Roxy L.; wife of Ira Wheeler; died Feb. 5, 1854; aged 64 yrs. 10 mos. 13 da.

-----; dau. of G. and J. Wheeler; died Mar. 7, 1847; aged 2 mos. 5 da. (top is broken off the stone)

-----; upper part of stone is broken and missing, but it is on the Wheeler lot; bears "aged 26 yrs. 11 mos. 21 da."

UNIDENTIFIED STONES

-----, Matilda; wife of -----; (could be Miran or William Miller; stone is badly eroded; can not be certain of date)

One stone with top broken off and gone, but lower section bears date "August 1, 186-(?); aged 20 yrs. 6 mos. 29 da."

One stone with top broken and badly eroded; surname dimmed; letters could be U I N U L E; bears date "died June 5, 1856; aged 15 yrs."

One stone which is a government marble shaft; bears no inscription, but there is a Masonic emblem, a square and compass, and below it, an anchor; in front of the marker there is a bronze U.S. veteran marker bearing words "Mexican War."

N .B.

We were told that a Martin Meister, a town "character" was buried here after his death caused by drinking battery acid.

BANKS CEMETERY
HOBART TOWNSHIP

Because no one could definitely establish that this cemetery was on Bank's property, the surveyors named it "Veterans Cemetery" when the original survey was made. Since then Mrs. McBride and Mrs. Brown have not a descendant of one of those buried in this plot. This burial was also one that had previously been unidentified.

This unidentified stone was the fourth one listed on the preceding page as being a stone with a Masonic emblem, a square and compass, and an anchor. There is a bronze marker in front which states that here is buried a veteran of the Mexican War. Mrs. Donald Walker of 649 South Main Street, Crown Point, Indiana, says that this is a lineal ancestor, Henry Sylvester Smith, who was a Mexican War veteran.

Further proof to this belief that this is the Banks Cemetery is given by the fact that the American Legion's Grave Registration File there is listed a Henry S. Smith, born 1811; died Aug. 5, 1866; buried Banks Cemetery, Hobart Township; Grave #1, Lot 17; Army of the Mexican Campaign.

On p. 710 of History of The Lake and Calumet Region of Indiana by Cannon, Loring, and Hess, Indianapolis, Historical Association, 1927, there appears a biographical sketch of Henry S. Smith.

HOLTZWARTH CEMETERY

Through an interview with "Uncle Nip Kenny", father of Cecil Kenny of Leroy, we learned of the existence of this small family cemetery. It is on property rented by Mr. and Mrs. John Hein, Jr. from the Adank family. It is located about an eighth of a mile from the house, which is on the east side of the Herrillville Road just before it crosses U.S. 30. It is on a small knoll, just beyond a ditch. Four trees and a dense growth of grass conceals the stones from view on the road. Mrs. Hein told us that the story had been handed down that a plague had caused the death of the entire family--parents and seven children. However, we found only four stones; the others, if there were nine, have been carried away.

The present owners do not pay taxes on approximate ninety square feet of property in the cemetery plot, and hope to remove the remaining stones next year--one hundred years following the last burial. The land, we learned, had been a grant by President Polk to Mathias Holtzwarth in 1846; it was sold to Daniel Fail, then to Walter Dornon, and then to William Adank. The abstract shows a Mathias Holtzworth and his wife, Maria; and a n heir, Rosina and Mathias and his wife, Christine, as late as 1868 or 70.

The four found stones were as follows:

HOLTZWARTH, Catharine; dau. of M. and R. Holtzwarth; died Feb. 5, 1847;
aged 17 yrs. 11 mos. 12 ds.
Hannah; dau. of M. and R. Holtzwarth; died Mar. 7, 1856;
aged 1 yr. 6 mo.
Magdalena; dau. of M. and R. Holtzwarth; died Feb. 15, 1847; aged 6 yrs. 1 mo. 15 ds.
Rosina; wife of Mathias Holtzwarth; died Oct. 6, 1856;
aged 54 yrs. 7 mos. 4 ds.

BORGER CEMETERY
BRUNSWICK
HANOVER TOWNSHIP

This small cemetery is located about one mile south of the village of Brunswick. Brunswick is about ten miles south and a mile and a half west of Crown Point. Originally established in 1858, it has never grown beyond the classification of a village. The cemetery is on the east side of the road and is now in quite good condition. It is the burial place of many of the old citizens of that community. It is called by many the Borger Cemetery because of the burial of many Borgers in the plot.

ST. ANTHONY'S CEMETERY
KLAASVILLE
WEST CREEK TOWNSHIP

Klaasville, located about one quarter mile east of the Indiana-Illinois state line, was founded in 1850 by H. Klaas. It is about twelve miles south and west from Crown Point. The community is today a farming one, with the former Roman Catholic congregation worshipping at Cook, Indiana. However, from George Klass, a grandson of the founder, we learned that the property on which this cemetery is located was deeded in 1860 to the Church. The deed states "Deeded to the Reverend J.W. Lucas, Bishop of the Fort Wayne Diocese, 4 acres of land in the S.E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the N.W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  of Sec. 33, Twp. 34, R. 10 W., Lake County, Indiana, for the use of the Roman Catholic congregation of West Creek forever, by Christian Klaas, and his wife, Wilhelmina and Augustus Klaas and Louisa Klaas, for the sum of one dollar (\$1.00) on the 18th day of October, 1860."

A Catholic church was established in 1860, but it has been moved away from the site. Mr. Joseph A. Muscman of 248 Maxwell Street, Crown Point, has informed us that in 1952, at the request of those interested the priest at Holy Name, Cook, Indiana, supervised the restoration of the cemetery and fenced the approximate one acre now used as a cemetery. Mr. Muscman's parents are buried here. The grounds are in good condition with only a few stones being illegible.

ROSS CEMETERY

ROSS TOWNSHIP

The small town of Ross is located about ten miles north and west from Crown Point. Originally established in 1857, it has remained principally a small residential area. The cemetery is well kept and is still used. It is located on the east side of the road that leads south out of the village, about one half mile from the town. It contains about ten acres, is neatly fenced, has three drives and a broad gateway at the center drive.

THREE CREEKS MONUMENT LOWELL, INDIANA

On Lowell's main thoroughfare, Commercial Avenue, is the Three Creeks Monument. Twenty-five feet high, with a nine foot granite base, this shaft is surmounted by the figure of a Union soldier. On each of three sides are inscribed the names of the men and one woman who served in the War of 1812, Civil War, Mexican War, and Spanish-American War from Cedar Creek, Eagle Creek, and West Creek. On the fourth side are inscribed the names of men from the three townships who either lived or are buried in these townships, but who did not serve from them.

Dedicated on June 9, 1905, by Governor Frank Hanley of Indiana and Department Commander Innes of the G.A.R., it is to the best of our knowledge the only such monument in the county.

Mrs. Joseph B. Brown and Mrs. W.A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, N.S.D.A.R., felt that these names were worthy of recording in official records; when it was found that such a list did not exist in the library of Lowell nor in the possession of anyone, the entire listing of names was taken on August 5, 1956. A listing will be presented to the Lowell Library for any future reference. We felt that this list adds to vital information necessary for tracing family records, and should accompany the century surveys of these townships.

CRESTON CEMETERY CEDAR CRICK TOWNSHIP

This quite old cemetery is sometimes called "Tinkerville", taking its name from the fact that in the early period of settlement Creston was known as Tinkerville. The village of Creston lies south and west from Crown Point. It is reached by travelling on the Cedar Lake-Lowell road, turning west on the road which is north of the Cutler farm. After this west turn one travels about a mile, making a turn back to the north at the location of the Creston Methodist church. The cemetery is adjacent to the church.

Timothy Ball said of this burying ground on P. 132, "This is a protected area; is used as a public burial place, but is private property on the land of A. D. Palmer. It ought to be deeded to Trustees of the Commissioners." At the present time it is under the care of the church and the township trustees.

We are indebted to Miss Ethel Virmedge of Creston for the names and information of unmarked graves and maiden names of a number of the burials. Mr. Dixon Burge of Crown Point, also assisted Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. W. A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Press Chapter, U. S. D. A. R., Crown Point, Indiana, in making the field survey of July 22, 1956.

Miss Virmedge lists the fellow men as veterans of the 1812 War, the Civil War, and the Spanish-American War.

CRESTON CEMETERY
CEDAR CREEK TOWNSHIP

During the month of September, 1956, there appeared in the Lake County Star, in a section devoted to happenings of by-gone years the following little article, dated September, 1912. We thought that it was worthy of inclusion in these cemetery records. It reads as follows:

"The moving of six members of the Ball family from the West Joliet street burial place to Creston last week showed that the soil at the old grounds is very dry. Some of the caskets were quite solid after being in the ground 40 or 60 years and the necktie and coat buried with Judge Ball about 40 years ago were well preserved."

MC CARTY FAMILY CEMETERY
CEDAR CREEK TOWNSHIP

This is a very small family cemetery completely hidden from view by mulberry trees and farming area. Miss Ethel Vinnecke of Creston, Indiana, also made the survey and her findings where different from those of Bro. Joseph M. Brown and Mrs. W.A. McBriar are given in parentheses. Survey made on July 22, 1953. Mr. Dixon Barr, S.A.R., of Crown Point, Indiana, was also a member of the party which located the site.

The cemetery is about a half a mile south of Creston in Cedar Creek Township on the old McCarty farm, now the property of Richard Hamman. It can be reached by going south on County Road B (the Cedar Lake-Lowell Road), turning west at the sign which designated Lake Dale-Carlin, and going about a quarter of a mile. The cemetery is on the south side of the road; there is a narrow worn lane which leads around the area.

MC CARTY, Charles W.S.; died Sept. 11, 1949; aged 1 yr. 10 da.; son of William P. and Sarah H.; (Miss Vinnecke has died Sept. 4, 1949; aged 1 yr. 19 da.)
Deida; wife of Hon. Benjamin McCarty; died Mar. 23, 1948;

OLD BURYING GROUND
CROWN POINT
CHICAGO, ILL.

The following names and notes should accompany the already completed survey of the Old Burying Ground and Luther Woods Cemetery recorded in 1955.

These interesting comments were taken from a small article in the scrapbook of a pioneer citizen of Crown Point, Wellington A. Clark. The scrapbook is in the possession of a granddaughter, Mrs. James Devan, of Crown Point. Apparently this was a small article in the local paper of some years ago. We felt it should be included in the cemetery survey record. Copied from the scrapbook in September, 1955, by Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. W.A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter N.S.D.A.R., Crown Point, Indiana.

"An Old Record"

An old cemetery record was recently picked up in town and it is quite interesting to the pioneers. It is a record of deaths beginning in 1843, and running as follows with notes.

William Orlando Farwell; son of Major C. Farwell; aged 2 yrs. 2 mos. buried Mar. 14, 1843; disease- scarlet fever

Two still born male infants of Hiram S. Pelton; buried Mar. 21, 1843

Diana Mason; wife of Cyrus Mason; aged 23 yrs.; buried Mar. 28, 1843; disease-child bed fever

Rehitable H. Pelton; wife of Hiram S. Pelton; aged 23 yrs.; buried Apr. 4, 1843; disease-croup

Allen D. Robinson; son of Solon Robinson; aged 6 mos.; buried Apr. 11, 1843; disease-scarlet fever;

(Note from editor--Snow still on the ground. It is worthy of remark that the first five burials in these grounds have taken place upon five successive Tuesdays.)

Folly Jane Mason; dau. of Cyrus H. Mason; aged 4 yrs.; buried Apr. 13, 1843; scarlet fever

John Holton; son of Jonathan W. Holton; aged 11 yrs. buried Apr. 16, 1843; scarlet fever

Alexander Holton; son of Jonathan Holton; aged 23 mos.; buried Apr. 17, 1843; scarlet fever

A male still born child of Thomas Sawyer; buried July 24, 1845

A female still born child of Alex McDonald; buried July 25, 1845

Ambrose Williams; aged 18 yrs.; buried July 20, 1846; This young man was a stranger

In 1846-47 we find the following burials:

Child of Dan May--prevailing fever

Mr. Henderson--bilious fever

A child of Mrs. Livingston--bilious fever

Jeremiah Green; aged 67; bilious fever

Mrs. Walter Alton; child birth

Mrs. Jeremiah Green; aged 52 yrs.; lung fever

Mr. Livingood; lung fever

Nancy J. Reed; wife of John Reed; consumption; Note--buried Sunday; Apr. 4, 1847; Sermon by Rev. Samuel Lamb; at the log court house which was very full; The day was to warm for fire; very pleasant.

Edward Little; aged 18 yrs.; recruit of Capt. Smith's Mexican Co.; buried by soldiers under arms; Apr. 25, 1847

Henry Horner; aged 26 yrs.; buried May 9, 1847

Hiram S. Pelton; died May 26, 1847 of bilious fever; after an illness of three days

"Many other death records appear, showing the date up to the latter part of 1849"

(Unfortunately, a check did not reveal any more such clippings, which contain this information. We are indebted to Mrs. Bevan for allowing us to copy these records from the scrapbook. Mrs. Bevan still resides in the home which her grandfather built, and which is mentioned in the History of Erie County, 1834-1872, by Timothy Ball, p. 307-309)

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC
CEMETERY TOWNSHIP

This cemetery is the property of the Catholic Church, St. Mary's. The church is located on east Joliet street, while the church cemetery is located on the north side of West South street.

It is reached by going directly west on South Street, for a distance of just about a mile. It is kept in quite good condition.

Timothy Ball lists the church as being built in 1837, so the cemetery must have come into existence sometime close to this date.

The field survey was made by Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. Walden A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Brown Chapter, W. S. D. A. R. of Crown Point, Indiana. It was completed on August 13, 1956. We understand that there is a committee from the church which keeps records of burials, but we did not cross check our findings with those records.

WEST POINT CEMETERY
CHATHAM TOWNSHIP

Located on the Howell-Cedar Lake road at the point where the west road runs into the north-south road and over the hill is the old location of the West Point Cemetery. It is just south of the Kennedy Hotel.

It is here that a bronze plate mounted on a native boulder attests to the fact that Obadiah Taylor, a Revolutionary War soldier is buried. Others of the Taylor family and neighbors by marriage and neighbors were buried. All the stones are gone, and we are indebted to Miss Ethel Vinnecke, a descendant of Obadiah Taylor for some of those who were buried here.

Obadiah Taylor is to date the only known Revolutionary War soldier buried in this county. The bronze plate reads as follows: "Here North lies the grave of a Revolutionary War soldier Obadiah Taylor, 1768-1859. Placed by the Lake County D. R. Chapters, 1941; Timothy Dall, Julia Matilda Brass, Calveret, Pottawatomi, Obadiah Taylor."

The story concerning the disappearance of the stones from this cemetery is that the property became more valuable for business than as a cemetery. As a consequence of either the county Commissioners or the township trustees or both condemned the area as a cemetery, allowed the stones to be thrown over the bluff into Cedar Lake, and permitted businesses to build on the site.

Those whose vital statistics are available from Miss Vinnecke are as follows:

MIYER, Dr. Calvin; died 1859

TAYLOR, Abenijah; Feb. 22, 1793; 1845
; Obadiah; (I); 1768-1859

ST. PETER AND PAUL CHURCH
ROSS TOWNSHIP

This Catholic cemetery is located on the north side of East 56th Avenue off the south extension of Broadway as it comes through Gary. It is approximately seven blocks from the junction of Broadway and 56th; this latter point being a curving road as it goes east from the north south street.

The church is located some few miles to the west-at 57th and Harrison streets. Efforts to ascertain the why of the wide separation of distance between the two properties, came to an unsuccessful end.

Timothy Ball in his book, Lake County 1834-1872, does not list this cemetery in his grouping; However on p. 100, he tells that the "Church of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul at Turkey Creek" (the above church) had first a log church built in 1852. "The present building of Joliet limestone built in 1864." He lists "40 families" as members with the property valued at $3,000."

W.T. DENNIS GRAVE
ROSS TOWNSHIP

On p.140 of his book Timothy Ball has this to say: "Ground on farm of W.T. Dennis contains some thirty graves. Here were buried many old settlers, as the Leebens, Martins, Sturdeyvents, Cleveland and others. Has not been used for burial purposes for five or six years. It ought to be protected and secured against desecration."

This survey made by Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. W.A. McBride of Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, I.S.S.D.A.M. on July 23, 1956. The site of the cemetery and some of the stones were located by the help of an elderly Mr. J. Sturdeyvent who has lived on the property all of his life. He told us that there were some twenty-five to thirty stones in the completely covered area some fifty rods from the narrow road. We succeeded in locating only a very few.

Mr. Sturdeyvent told us that his father had taken the land in 1840, and that he settled on it in 1843. He mentioned burials of the same families as listed by T. Ball, and also the burial of a now unknown Mexican war soldier, supposedly buried with gold he had brought back from California. The old Michigan City road went south of the cemetery, angling off to the north to cross Deep River. It is here that probably is the Wilkinson Ford of which Ball speaks. The barb now stands on a part of the old road site.

Stones which we could find and read are as follows:

- GRANGER, Zora; son of H. and E. Granger; died Apr. 20, 1862; aged 18 yrs. 2 mos.
    , base and slab just four north of Granger; sunken and no inscription
- STURDEWANT, John; died Jan. 17, 1859; aged 52 yrs. 9 mos. 19 ds.
    , Lydia; wife of B.B.; died June 1, 1864; aged 27 yrs.
    , footstone west of this; no marking

WOODVALE CEMETERY
ROSS TOWNSHIP

Timothy Ball in his book, Lake County, 1854-1873, p. 159, says of this cemetery "Family burial place at Deep River. This is, perhaps, the oldest in the county, having been first used in 1836. These are cared for."

Deep River is located on old U.S. 30 now called 350. It is east of Merrillville. The cemetery is east of the community and north after crossing the bridge which spans the river. John Wood entered his claim here in 1835, and brought his family in 1836. He built the first grist mill, which is still standing, in 1838.

In the center of a park like area on the north side of 350 is a native boulder with a bronze plaque which reads as follows:

1800 John Wood 1835
1808 Hannah Pearce Wood 1873
From Danvers, Massachusetts
Entered claim and built log cabin 1835
Brought family in 1836
Erected first grist mill in Lake County 1838
Set aside this commons and planted elms
Advocated and practiced honest morality, temperance, liberal religion and industry
Charter member of Masonic Lodges at Valparaiso,
Green Point, and Wheeler
Reared their family, died here, buried in cemetery established by them in 1836
Erected by descendants in 1934

Survey made of cemetery by Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. W.A. McBride of Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, W.E.B.A.R., July 25, 1936.

BELSHAW FAMILY GROVE
WHITE CHICK ESTATE

In Lake County, 1854-1872, by S.H. Ball, p. 133 the Belshaw family grove is mentioned as being owned by S.H. Ball. Ball said "ought to be deeded to County Commissioners. It is enclosed containing some fine, large evergreens, but there is no security that it will remain undisturbed, and the dust of one of Lake Prairie's daughters, with several other once loved forms, is there reposing."

Upon inquiry, Mrs. Joseph F. Brown and Mrs. W.A. McIwade, located Mr. Bert Belshaw and secured from him by letter, dated July 9, 1956, the following information regarding the site and disposition of the cemetery. Mr. Belshaw is a resident of the small village of Belshaw located east of U.S. 41.

The cemetery was located on a small tract in front of his home on the north side of the road. In 1894, Mr. James Brannon, grandfather of Bert Belshaw, purchased the property from the Henry Belshaw estate with the understanding that the cemetery would be moved. Mr. Charles Belshaw had charge of the affairs of the estate. In 1898, Bert Belshaw and Charles Belshaw opened the graves, and the remains were placed in a coffin. These were reinterred in the Sanders Cemetery. (which see)

Survey was made of the area in July, 1956, by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. McIwade of the Julia Watkins Evans Chapter, W.S.D.A.R.

FULLER CEMETERY

"A very retired quiet resting-place over West Creek on the Fuller place, where the dead of that neighborhood have been buried. Not fenced by itself nor deeded to trustees; but well cared for."

So spoke Timothy Ball in Chapter VII, p. 138 of his book Lake County, 1831-1878 of the cemetery known as the Fuller Cemetery. However when on June 27, 1936, when the survey was made by Aris Bryant Brown (Mrs. Joseph B.) and Frances Holmenick McBride (Mrs. W.A.) some eighty four years later, they found the place enclosed with a wire fence and gate; the grass was mowed; the graves neatly groomed; the stones and monuments erect; the path which leads from the road up the right of way was grassy. Apparently the area has been deeded over to the township for we were told that in the last few years the township had been granted this right of way.

The spot is beautiful on the high knoll with a creek winding around on the north and west. There is a background of trees and bushes following the line of the creek.

We are indebted to Mr. Harry Hathaway, former West Creek Township trustee for the information as to the location of this cemetery, which can not be seen from the road especially as one would approach it from the west. It is located approximately forty rods south of the road, a half mile east of the Illinois-Indiana road, at a point of five to six miles at the junction of this road with state road 2. It may also be found by travelling west on the road which is on the north of the Lake Park Cemetery, with a jog back north.

LAKE PRERIE BURIAL GROUND

WIDE CREEK TOWNSHIP

The survey of this well kept little cemetery was made on June 3, 1936 by Avis Royal Brown (Mrs. Joseph B.) and Frances Holmerick McBride (Mrs. Walden A.).

It is located today at the junction of U.S. 41 and Ind. 2 on the southwest corner of the crossroads.

The survey which completed showed 202 named graves and 24 unnamed or illegible grave markings.

At the present time it is under the care of the township trustee and is very well kept.

Timothy Ball said of this burial area in his book, Lake County, 1834-1872, "This is a large, well protected and cared for cemetery; is on a slightly eminence, one of the best located cemeteries in the county. I can find no deed of this ground to trustees on record. It ought to be this deeded."

THE METHODIST CHURCH
BURIAL GROUND

WEST CREEK TOWNSHIP

Timothy Ball in his book, Lake County, 1854-1872, p. 188 says of this cemetery "Near the bridge. Carved for, but too small."

This little cemetery once was located just at the bridge over West Creek. By today's location this would be on Indiana 2 as it goes west toward the Illinois state line. It would be near the present day West Creek Township Cemetery, which see.

Through Mr. Harry Hathaway, past trustee of the township, we have learned that in all probability the bodies were moved from this location into the cemetery known today as "West Creek". We also checked with several persons who have known the neighborhood for some number of years, and they did not remember the cemetery as being at the bridge.

Survey was made on June 27, 1956, by Avis Bryant Brown (Mrs. Joseph L.) and Frances H. McBride (Mrs. W. A.) of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, U. S. D. A. R.; Crown Point, Indiana.

THE SANDERS BURIAL GROUND

WEST CREEK TOWNSHIP

Timothy Ball in his history of Lake County has this to say of this burial area. "The Sanders Burial Ground. Probably not deeded to the public, but protected."

In more recent years the cemetery has been deeded to the township by the Sanders family. On June 28, 1958, when this survey was made, we found the cemetery in quite good condition. It is fenced, has an entry gate at the top of a flight of concrete steps. We found only one stone which was not erect or covered over. The survey was made by Iris Bryant Brown (Mrs. Joseph B.) and Frances Holmquist McQuide (Mrs. W.A.) of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, W.S.D.A.R.

The cemetery is located south of Howell, Indiana, and is best reached by going east off of U.S. 41 on the first black top road east of the junction of Indiana 2 and U.S. 41. This is a mileage of perhaps three to five miles. The cemetery is about three miles east on the north side of the road.

On the east side of the entry steps the following wording is found on the bronze plate.

William Sanders

Anna Harris Sanders

Who Settled this Section
Built the first School House
Here and Deeded this Cemetery to the Township
Centennial Memorial
1841 1941
Erected by Sanders Clan

Through information gained from Mr. Harry Hathaway, former trustee of the township, we have learned that bodies and stones from the old Bolshaw cemetery were moved into this cemetery, as well as into the West Creek Cemetery.

WEST CREEK CEMETERY
WEST CREEK TOWNSHIP

Timothy Ball in his book, Lake County, 1854-1872, speaks of this cemetery as "The Hayden Burial Place" and says of it "Now West Creek. Not deeded. Protected."

This undoubtedly was the original Hayden burial area for there are at the time of this survey some fifty-five entries under the Hayden surname; in addition this area has now been deeded to the West Creek Township and is very well kept.

We have the information that to this area has been moved the bodies and stones which made up the Methodist Burial Ground near the bridge at West Creek. Also bodies from the old Bolshaw family burying grounds have been moved here. This information has been gained from the former Township Trustee, Mr. Harry Hathaway, to whom we are indebted.

The survey was made by Avis Bryant Brown (Mrs. Joseph H.) and Frances Melnerick McFried (Mrs. W.A.), members of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, W.S.D.A.R., on June 27, 1956.

The cemetery is located near the bridge over West Creek, being east and north of the bridge. It is best reached by travelling west on State Road 2 as it goes west toward the Illinois line off of U.S. 41. It is approximately two to three miles to a county road on which one turns north for about a quarter mile.

The cemetery is fenced, has an entry gate, has numerous fir trees and is well kept.

one wooden cross east of John Rhein

one wooden cross across and one west from Jacob Behrman

N.B.

Survey was made of all stones which indicated death up to and including 1931, at which time the new name of the church was used. In several cases of soldiers later data was taken.

CROWN HILL CEMETERY

MOHAWT TOWNSHIP

This fair sized cemetery is located in Mohawt Township, north of the city of Mohawt. It is on Lake Park Avenue just a few feet north of the intersection of the Avenue with U.S. 3.

It is the considered opinion of the women who worked on the survey that this is the Protestant Cemetery of which Timothy Ball speaks in his book, Lake County, 1871-1872, on page 140. He states that it was laid out in 1871 and was finished at the date of publication of the book.

The survey contains the record of burials of soldier dead up to 1950. The cemetery is in fairly good condition and is under a private corporation.

ST. FRANCIS BROTHER OF MERCY
MARIANE TOWNSEND

This small and neglected cemetery is located to the south and west of the present church, St. Francis Xavier. This is with out a doubt the "Catholic at Salter" to which Timothy Ball refers to on page 110 in his book. This church is just a block or so west of Indiana St. as it enters the present city of St. Clair.

Last Sunday in the earlier days the church was known as Holy Comfort. The Catholic Church at that time was called the Church of St. Joseph. It had been established in 1861, and had a membership of twenty families. The year 1870 was estimated at $2500.00.

The cemetery was made by Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. W. A. McFadden of the Salter Ladies Mass Chapter, W.C.D.A.R., Crown Point, Indiana, on August 4, 1897.

KEESVILLE CEMETERY

MONROE TOWNSHIP

The Rev. F.H. Bell in his book, Elletts County, Indiana, 1834-1872, p. 151, has the following to say of this cemetery which is today a part of the city of Hammond, Indiana.

"Joseph Hess, the proprietor of this village, settled in 1830 and built a store. Store opened about 1837. Building was large, one store, and a blacksmith shop. The building was lived by a family and, besides, a boarding house, and a dwelling on the railroad. There are two cemeteries. Keesville contains a small house in which are indicated some seventy school rooms. A school was first opened here in 1838, under the thirty teachers, and thereafter meetings are held at the school house. This village is distant from Gibson's Station, one mile; and from Crown Point, 16 miles. A good grazing region is near Keesville, and some inhabitants live near the village, but most of North Township is as yet sparsely inhabited."

The survey of this cemetery was made on July 30, 1937, by Mrs. Joseph L. Brown and Mrs. Wilson Holcomb of the Elletts County Historical Society, Ellettsville, Ind. They decided to take only the stones which in 1837 were only burials, as far as to and including 1838, and soldiers' graves.

The cemetery is located on the south side of 15th Street, (formerly Avenue) (A. Gary), Keesville. It is an irregularly shaped plot in the north-south direction. The east-west direction is in the north-south direction. The east end of the cemetery most likely is location of graves which in a majority of cases by white wooden crosses bearing no names. In this case also there are also some stones from the early period of the cemetery 1-75. There are a few newer stones with dates 1887, 1891, etc. The first all stones were found the south of the street intersection of 15th and California Avenues. There are numerous plots which are bounded by concrete, but have no names, nor stones. Many old stones are also to be found which are worn badly and could not be read.

ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CEMETERY

ST. JOHN TOWNSHIP

ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CEMETERY

ST. JOHN TOWNSHIP

Located on the west side of U.S. Highway 41, in the town of St. John, this cemetery contains some very old burials. It is immediately adjacent to the church and school. The grounds are in good condition; stones all face to the north. Many of the old stones are very difficult to read for they are weathered and inscriptions are almost worn to the stone itself.

On page 180 of Timothy Ball's book, Lake County, 1834-1870, he lists the Church of St. John the Evangelist at St. John as having built its first chapel in 1835; the present brick building in 1856; 140 families; property valued at $18,000. This first chapel is now in the fairgrounds in Crown Point, having been given to the Boy Scouts. The field workers understand there is a move underway to return this building to its original site.

The survey was made in the early part of August, 1958, by Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. Waldon A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, N.S.D.A.R. of Crown Point, Indiana.

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the underlying mechanisms of the observed phenomena. This section provides a comprehensive overview of the current state of research in this field, highlighting key findings and identifying areas for further investigation.

2. The second part of the paper focuses on the development of a new theoretical framework that integrates the various concepts and models discussed in the literature. This framework is designed to provide a more unified and coherent understanding of the complex interactions involved in the process.

3. The third part of the paper presents the results of a series of experiments conducted to test the predictions of the new framework. These experiments were carefully designed to isolate the variables of interest and to measure the effects of different factors on the outcome.

4. The fourth part of the paper discusses the implications of the experimental results for the broader field of research. It highlights the strengths and limitations of the new framework and suggests potential applications of the findings in other areas of study.

5. Finally, the paper concludes with a summary of the main findings and a discussion of the future directions of research in this area. It emphasizes the need for continued collaboration and communication among researchers in order to advance our understanding of the underlying mechanisms of the observed phenomena.

HOBART CITY CEMETERY

HOBART TOWNSHIP, LAKE COUNTY

This city cemetery is an old one and is still in use. The surveyors took only the burials which predate 1929, service burials, or an occasional name to complete an entire family grouping. Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. Waldon A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, N.S.D.A.R., of Crown Point, Indiana made the survey during the months of August and September, 1958. They wish to thank Mr. "Bud" Mellon, chairman of the Cemetery Board of Hobart for his assistance; Mr. George Earle of East Gary for the information regarding the Barnes-Earle private vault on the cemetery property; Mrs. C. A. Huber of the Gary D.A.R. chapter for her help in completing the survey.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be carefully documented to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes recording dates, amounts, and the nature of the transactions.

The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the company's revenue streams. It identifies the primary sources of income and analyzes their contribution to the overall financial performance. This section also includes a comparison of current revenue trends with historical data to provide context.

The third part of the document focuses on the company's expenses and costs. It details the various categories of expenditures, from operational costs to capital investments. The analysis highlights areas where costs can be optimized and provides recommendations for reducing unnecessary expenses.

The fourth part of the document presents a comprehensive overview of the company's profit margins. It calculates the gross, operating, and net profit margins, and discusses the factors that influence these metrics. The goal is to identify the most effective strategies for maximizing profitability.

The fifth part of the document discusses the company's financial position and liquidity. It assesses the company's ability to meet its short-term and long-term obligations and provides insights into the overall financial health. This section also includes a discussion of the company's debt levels and its impact on the financial statements.

The sixth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and conclusions. It reiterates the main points discussed in the previous sections and offers a final assessment of the company's financial performance. The document concludes with a statement of the author's confidence in the accuracy and reliability of the data presented.

TOLLESTON CEMETERY
CALUMET TOWNSHIP

The Tolleston area of Gary is a district west of Grant Street and south of Ninth Avenue. It was named for George Tolle, who established a village here in 1857. First settlers were of English, Irish, and French extraction; by 1860, a large group of German families supplanted the original settlers (up to 1906 the village was a German Lutheran town). Until 1868, Tolleston was in North Township; with the founding of Hammond in that year a new township, Calumet, was carved out of North Township and Tolleston was included in this new township. By 1872, there were eight families in the village, the majority in the employ of the Michigan Central railroad. Other means of livelihood were the shipping of ice, sand, berries and fish and game. The village had a schoolhouse, a church, (German Lutheran) Gibson Inn, postoffice, a wood yard, a general store, and a railroad station. The abundance of game in the Tolleston district resulted in the building of a rather famous hunting lodge. In 1911, Tolleston was incorporated into the city of Gary. Today although the name is still used the old village lines have disappeared. St. John's Lutheran Church was built in 1868, and was the first such building in the Calumet region. The property was set aside when the village was laid out by Tolle.

The survey of this sadly neglected cemetery was made by Mrs. C.A. Huber and Mrs. J.M. Seabright of the Pottowattomie Chapter D.A.R., Gary, Indiana, during the summer of 1958. Facing now toward Grant Street, a main artery of travel, the cemetery is gradually disappearing because of lack of care, vandalism, and weather.

Buried here is Maria Gibson who with her husband operated the Gibson Inn, a way stop for travellers in this area in the early days.

WALDHEIM CEMETERY
CALUMET TOWNSHIP

This cemetery located at W. Fifteenth Avenue and Grant Street is an old German cemetery. Tradition has it that this is the burial place of on Jean Baptiste Cloutier who was the the French guide and body guard of the Joseph Bailly family. The surveyors however found no evidence of this from their field survey of the property. The first minister of the Calumet Region, Rev. H. Winderlich is buried here as are many of the early German settlers of the Tolloston area. When first making the survey the cemetery was in a poor condition. However, before the survey had been completed, the cemetery board had apparently taken some action and the property had been mowed and curbing removed or repaired were possible. It appeared that further work was to be done.

The field survey was made by Mrs. C.A. Huber of the Gary Pottowattomie Chapter, N.S.D.A.R. and Mrs. Joseph Brown and Mrs. Waldon A. McBride of the Crown Point, Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, N.S.D.A.R. Credit is to be given to the Gary chapter through Mrs. Huber for her work. Work was completed during the summer of 1958.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the various categories of expenses and revenues, showing how they contribute to the overall financial picture. This section includes specific examples and calculations to illustrate the process.

The third part of the document outlines the procedures for reconciling the accounts and ensuring that all entries are properly verified. It stresses the need for regular audits and the importance of having a clear system in place for handling discrepancies. The final part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and recommendations for improving the financial management process.

The following table provides a summary of the data collected during the audit. It shows the total amount of revenue generated, the total amount of expenses incurred, and the resulting net profit. The table is organized into columns for each category, allowing for easy comparison and analysis. The data indicates that while revenue has increased, expenses have also risen, leading to a slight decrease in net profit compared to the previous period.

Based on the findings of the audit, several recommendations are made to improve the financial management process. These include implementing more rigorous controls over expenses, improving the accuracy of revenue reporting, and conducting more frequent audits. It is also recommended that the financial team be provided with additional training to ensure they are up-to-date on the latest accounting practices.

The audit was conducted by the external auditor, who has provided a detailed report on the findings. The results of the audit are being shared with the management team for their review and action. It is expected that the recommendations will be implemented within the next quarter, leading to improved financial performance and greater transparency in the organization's financial operations.

ZION CHURCH CEMETERY

HANOVER TOWNSHIP

This well kept church cemetery is best reached by taking the first road west after the junction of Road 8 and U.S. 41( a caution light is to seen overhead). One travels two miles west, one mile south, and again west for a half mile. The cemetery is north of the church. This church will celebrate in August of 1959, its centennial year and plans a brochure on its work. The Rev. George Knapp is the present pastor of the church which in the beginning was a German Evangelical Church; In the "Corrections" of Ball's Lake County, 1834-1872, he lists this cemetery. Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. Waldon McBride (Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, W.S.D.A.R. of Crown Point, Indiana) who made the survey in July, 1959, have been given permission to copy the death records of the church; these will accompany this record; marriage and birth records will be prepared separately.

The following data is the death register, translated from the German, of the Zion United Church of Christ. Originally a German Evangelical church, it celebrated one hundred years of service in the summer of 1958. The compiler, Mrs. Waldon A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, D.A.R., Crown Point, Indiana, was given permission to copy these records. It was through the courtesy of the pastor, Rev. George W. Knapp, that she was able to have the records available. She would also like to acknowledge the aid of Mr. Al Petry of Crown Point in translating these records.

These records accompany the previously submitted records of the cemetery which is on church property. It is believed that they are an important part of the recording of the cemetery and other records of the church. Marriages and baptisms of this church will be completed in a separate set of records. Records are copied in chronological order.

Old Whiting Cemetery

North Township
Lake County
Indiana

Bones from this now abandoned cemetery were secured from the burial record book of the city of Whiting. Sometimes referred to as the Perry Lake Cemetery it was located at 121st Street north to the water tower; this is the present site of Larned House #2 of the Standard Oil Refinery, who removed the bodies as did the City of Whiting to the new Whiting Cemetery and other designated cemeteries in 1912. These other cemeteries included Concordia, Greek Catholic Cemetery, Greenwood, Oak Hill, and St. John's.

Copying of the records was done by Mrs. Waldon A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter of Crown-point, Indiana, and Mrs. C. A. Huber of the Pottawatomie Chapter of Gary, Indiana. The chapters will share the records.

On page 44, the conclusion of the records, there appeared the following signed statement. "We the undersigned hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and complete list of the bodies removed from the old Whiting cemetery to the new Whiting Cemetery and other cemeteries, such as stated to the best of our knowledge and belief." Signed J. F. Freeman, Inspector; C. A. Waite, City Engineer; George W. Jones, City Clerk."

Unfortunately there is not a great deal of information given in the records, except for names. These are presented in the belief that even this is of some value.

OLD BURIAL GROUND

WEST CREEK TOWNSHIP

On page 138 of Timothy Ball's Lake County, 1834-1872, he lists an old burial ground near the Wilkinson place with only six graves; as private property; with no special care but not disturbed. The surveyors, Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. Waldon A. McRide of the Julia Watkins Branch Chapter, N.S.D.A.R., Crown Point, Indiana, believe that this cemetery listed below is this one so mentioned by Ball. At the present time it is almost inaccessible because of roads and brush which covers the existing stones. We are indebted to Mr. Harold Sutton of Lowell who told us of this cemetery, and of the fact that the property had been purchased with a view to subdividing it. Since the cemetery contains the remains and stone of a Civil War veteran, the surveyors will attempt to interest the nearest American Legion Post in doing something to preserve the stone of this veteran. The cemetery is located on the west side of a road 2/10 of a mile from the first road north of the Sheridan School. These roads intersect and the north-south road is a very poor one. Survey gives this as NW 1/4 S5 33-9

DIEPENBACH, Barbara; wife of Michael Diepenbach; died Mar. 20, 1859; aged 77 yrs. 7 mos. 14 das.

JURGENSEN, Conrad; Mar. 15, 1839; in Germany; Nov. 21, 1865; Civil War soldier; 1st Lt. Co. A. 9th Ill. Cav.; stone is broken in three pieces, but is intact enough to read and to see that it has an emblem of a flag in hand; There is a Conrad and a C.H. Jurgensen listed on the face of the Three Creeks Monument in Lowell as a member of the 9th Ill. Cav. and the above could well be one of these OBRECHT, Marie; wife of Jacob; died Feb. 10, 1865; aged 41 yrs. 10 mos. 29 das.

There are also three boulders and one broken shale marker without any data which could well be additional graves.

SASSE FAMILY CEMETERY

HANOVER TOWNSHIP

This small and disappearing cemetery is today on the property of Leo Kleins. The property is that of a farm and the cemetery was in the apple orchard. The present owner has removed the stones and placed them in a pile at the side of the orchard. He is interested in having the stones completely removed and offered them to the surveyors at the time the survey was made on July 4, 1959. The surveyors were Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. Waldon A. McBride of the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, N.S.D.A.R., Crown Point, Indiana. They wish to acknowledge the help of Mr. Brown in locating and surveying the cemetery. The property is on the road out of Brunswick north and on the east side.
